

EQ: What was the Arms Race that occurred during the Cold War?

The Butter Batter Book	Cold War
Yooks and Zooks	Americans and Russians
Butter side up and butter side down	democracy and communism
Wall	Berlin Wall
Building bigger and better weapons	arms race

How is the fictional story of the Butter Battle similar to the arms race that occurred during the Cold War?

- Sometimes the smallest of conflicts can lead to major, unnecessary battles
- The Yooks and the Zooks were trying to "be better" than each other; this created a back and forth battle
- There is no "real fighting" taking place, just competition.
